Perry, Katherine M.

[Sweet Briar College,
Sweet Briar, VA]

Sweet Briar - Va.
Feb. 12 - 1920

The Numismatic Museum -
New York City.

Dear Sir:

Would it be possible for you to send me any information which pertains to coins and coinage in the United States, particularly from the period beginning with the adoption of the Constitution through the Civil War? I should be very grateful for anything which could be used in a study of this sort -

Sincerely yours -

Katharine M. Perry -

February 14, 1930

Miss Katharine M. Perry
Box 154
Sweet Briar College
Sweet Briar, Va.

Dear Madam:

Responding to your letter, I regret that there is no such publication as you desire for this period of the U. S. coinage that is much more than a checked list. Dickeson's "American Numismatic Manual" is antiquated and dull, which is partly due to the uniformity of our coinage issues. Aside from patterns and hard-time tokens, there is little of interest within the period you mention. I wish I might be able to write you differently.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.